"LOOK TO YOUR BEHAVIOR TODAY."

Possibly many people today are judging Christ by you and your conduct. They may not be reading the Gospel as much as they are reading you. How necessary then for the professing ones to so comport themselves that the gazing world will have cause to wonder and to seek and will finally take knowledge that you have been with Jesus.

OBITUARIES

OUR BEAUTIFUL HOME

It was long ago I learned of Heaven,
A fair place of rest they say,
Where the weary lay down their burdens
And cares all fade away.

Not a heart up there is broken,
Not an eye bedimmed with tears;
No sickness, blindness nor deafness
In that city of endless years.

No weariness, starving or suffering,
No children wandering out in the cold;
No poor-house for the old and feeble;
For up there we'll never grow old.
No mothers waiting in sadness
For a child that's following wrong;
No fathers grey from worry
In that beautiful land of song.

No graves will be dug in Heaven,
No pitiful and so sad farewell,
No funerals are preached in glory,
In the land where all is well.

There'll be no poor ones in Heaven,
No rich ones up there I know;
There'll be no drunkards or sinners;
For the Bible tells me so.

I hope some day in Heaven
With Jesus forever I'll be,
And sometime in looking around
Your face dear brethren, I'll see.

For the dissemination of the Primitive Faith, and practice of the early Christian as taught by Jesus Christ and His apostles and as handed down to the present day by the OLD GERMAN BAPTIST CHURCH.

Price $1.00 per year payable in advance.

It contends for the Ancient Principles of the Old Church, and for the Old Paths. It admonishes to humility, love and peace; a check to the rapid growth of pride and popularity; a renunciation of sin in all of its various forms, and a deeper work of grace in the heart, etc.

"For whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like minded, one toward another, according to Christ Jesus: that ye may with ONE mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God." (Romans 15:4-7).

OBITUARIES

GONE UPSTAIRS

Passed on beyond our mortal vision
All heedless of our mortal tears
Unconscious of our desolation
Unnoting all our lonely years
But while in silent grief we lingered
Came tender voices unheard before
"Weep not; that one whose loss you sorrow
Has gone upstairs and shut the door.
Passed on beyond our mortal vision
But now the thought is robbed of gloom
Within the Father's many Mansions
Still dwelling in another room.
The one whose going left us lonely
Is scaling heights undreamed of yore
And guided on by love's unfolding
Has gone upstairs and shut the door.

He was a member of The Old German Baptist Church for 57 years and in the ministry 35 years. A few weeks before the end came he called for the anointing which seemed to comfort him in his suffering and affliction. On Sept. 16, 1875 he was united in marriage to Sarah Jane Miller, who preceded him in death on June 7, 1936. To this union were born 11 Children, namely, Abraham, Reuben, Arzula, Elizabeth, Noah, Albert, Rebecca, Emmett, who survive, Bennie who died in infancy, and Lydia May who died in 1925. He with his companion united with the Old German Baptist Church in 1875. In the division of 1881 they stood with the Old Order body. He was elected to the deacon's office in 1884, to the ministry in 1895 and ordained to the full ministry in 1917. He filled his calling well and with his companion was always ready to help the needy. It was not their wish to slight any one. Many times he said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, we have done it unto me." He was a devoted father and grandfather and had good health and memory till Dec. 19, 1941 when he was stricken, but knew his friends till the end. A few days before his departure he called for the elders and was anointed in the name of the Lord which was of much comfort to him. He loved to have the brethren with him.

HESS—Elder Abram C. Hess, eldest son of Jacob and Christina (Snowberger) Hess, was born near Waynesboro, Pa., on December 17, 1859. On January 8, 1883 he was united in marriage to Sarah Elizabeth Grove. To this union nine children were born, of whom the youngest, Elsa, departed this life on July 15th, 1924, at the age of nineteen years. Surviving children are Willis A., Mrs. Annie C. Myers, Maurice A., Mrs. Clara P. Miller, Paul G., Mrs. Mary E. Miller, Silas H., and Mrs. Eva E. Miller, besides his companion other survivors are one brother, Elder William T. Hess, one sister, Mrs. Annie Rouzer, twenty-eight grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

He assumed heavy responsibilities at the early age of nine years because of the death of his father. Soon after his marriage he moved into the Altenwald community and became a successful and respected farmer and fruit grower.

But his chief interest was in the future world. In 1880 he became a member of the Old German Baptist Church. In May, 1889 he was elected to the office of deacon, on October 8, 1892 to the ministry and May 1914 he was ordained to the eldership. He gave generously of his time and talents to the work of the church. His counsel was frequently sought by his colabrorers. He served on several annual meeting committees and on the standing committee. Whenever health permitted neither the heat of summer nor the cold of winter deterred him from regular church attendance.

He was deeply interested in the welfare of his large family. One of the keenest pleasures of his declining years and an indication of the type of life he lived came from the fact that all his surviving children and their marriage companions, as well as a goodly number of the grandchildren, without coercion became members of the church which he served for sixty years. He exemplified a living faith.

In spite of several severe illnesses, a strong constitution and correct principles of living enabled him to attain a ripe old age. At the time of a severe heart attack last March he remembered the instruction of James and was anointed with oil in the name of the Lord. He regained a measure of health, but the infirmities of age which he suffered patiently, came to an end on the morning of January 1, 1942 at the age of 82 years and 14 days, and he passed peacefully to that future world for which he earenstly longed and for which he prepared so many years.

Funeral services were held on January 4, 1942 at Browns Mill church by Elders Harry G. Benedict and Irvin P. Benedict, assisted by other home brethren with internment in the adjoining cemetery to await the resurrection morn. In the afternoon brief services were held at the bedside of his companion.

HOCKMAN—John Martin Hockman, son of Bro. Sam'l, R. and Sister Eliza (Gochenour) Hockman, was born Sept. 14, 1859, at Maurertown, Shenadoah Co., Virginia; and closed his earthly pilgrimage at 7:00 P. M., Thurs. Jan. 8, 1942, at the home of his son, near Springfield, Ohio. He had reached the age of 82 years, 3 months and 24 days.

He came to Ohio in the spring of 1867, with his parents, who settled just west of Urbana, at Rohrer Town Mill. His father being a miller, he was reared in that profession and followed it until 1906, when he took up farming. In 1908 he with G. A. Collier erected a grain elevator at North Hampton, Ohio. He disposed of this enterprise in Feb. 1913; again going to the farm and continued in that occupation until the death of his companion, in 1934; when he sold his farm and made his home with his son until his death.

He united with The Old German Baptist Brethren Church in 1882, and has lived a consistent Christian Life until called to his eternal reward.

On Oct. 17. 1886, in Anderson Co., Kansas, he was united in holy wedlock with Anna F. Crist; daughter of Elder Jacob Crist. This union was blessed with two children, one son and one daughter. In April 1890 he was chosen to the office of Deacon; which office he faithfully and dutifully filled; never being too busy with temporal affairs to attend to the spiritual.

In the spring of 1922, he, with his companion affiliated themselves with the Covington Petitioner Movement, which affiliation he retained until death. A few weeks before his death, he called for the elders of the church and was anointed with oil in The Name of The Lord, according to the Apostle James. His last illness was of about three months duration, although he had been in declining health for several years, due to a weak heart. He leaves to mourn his departure, his daughter Effie E. Hockman, and his son Noah A.; two grandchildren, Paul E. Hockman and Mary E. Hockman; also two step-grandaughters, Mrs. Alberta Heilman and Miss Ardith Kenzie, besides three brothers namely: Milton H., William A. and Dr. Sam'l. and two sisters, namely: Mrs. Emma V. Prosser and Mrs. Ola Cox, also a number of other relatives and friends.

We trust our loss is his eternal gain. His companion preceded him in death Jan. 12, 1934; also one grandson, John W. Hockman, on July 25, 1941.

Father was reserved, mild and kind and won, by these attributes the friendship and esteem of all with whom he came in contact.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday, Jan. 11, 1942; at 1:30 P. M., at Donnelscreek Church, by Bro. Henry Fisher, Dan'l Cook, David Lavy and Cora Garber, from II Tim. 2:6-8 to a large audience of sympathyzing relatives and friends. OBITUARIES

WHY WE SUFFER

Laughter and sunshine and mirth,
Sorrow and heartache and pain,
Living our days on the earth,
These ever present remain,
Never a joy we can choose
And the hurt of its passing refuse.
Nothing from sorrow is free,
Nothing is hopelssly bad
The sinner, repentant may be Restored to the place he once had.
The loss we suffer was sown
In the soil where our pleasure was grown.
Who smiles in the love of a friend
Must carry with him through the years
For the days when that friendship shall end
An equal proportion of tears.
The richer the treasure we reap,
The bitterer some day we'll weep.
You take not a babe in your arms
Without risking the pain of the day
When your little one's glorious charms
From your arms it may be taken away.
And the things which most proudly you boast
Bear the stings which shall hurt you the most.
We are creatures of possible pain,
We have naught that shall not pass away,
We must give up whatever we gain,
Things eternal are not for the clay.
The life that we love we must give
Unto death that the Spirit may live.

It contends for the Ancient Principles of the Old Church, and for the Old Paths. It admonishes to humility, love and peace; a check to the rapid growth of pride and popularity; a renunciation of sin in all of its various forms, and a deeper work of grace in the heart, etc.

"For whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like minded, one toward another, according to Christ Jesus: that ye may with ONE mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God." (Romans 15:4-7).

OBITUARIES

FEAR NOT DEATH

Why be afraid of death
As though your life were breath?
Death but anoints your eyes
With clay, O glad surprise.
Why should you be forlorn?
Death only husks the corn.
Why should you fear to meet
The Thresher of all the wheat?
Is sleep a thing to dread?
Yet, sleeping you are dead
'Till you awake and rise
Here or beyond the skies.
Why should it be a wrench
To leave your wooden bench?
Why not with happy shout
Run home when school is out?
The dear ones left behind?
Oh foolish one and blind,
A day and you will meet;
A night and you will greet,
A joy without a fear,
A smile without a tear,
Not care and work, but rest,
We'll find the last the best.

His counsels were sought for, and he served on many committees and labored for the prosperity of the Church. Realizing that his health and strength were failing he remembered the instruction of James, which he had so frequently administered to others, and was anointed with oil in the name of the Lord, and patiently awaited his change, which came on March 13, 1942, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Brower, in Flora, having reached the age of 82 years and 2 days.

Thus closed an active and useful life of one who was known far and wide. His labors on earth have ceased, his tongue is stilled; but many memories may be cherished still. Gone but not forgotten.

Following brief services at the home, two miles east of Flora, Sunday P. M., his body was conveyed in a large funeral procession to his lifetime place of worship (the Flora meeting house) where, at 2 o'clock, the last sad rites were held by Elder O. A. He was a farmer all his life and remained active until death, which was attributed to heart attack.

Uncle Joe was a kind, affectionate husband, father and a peace loving character and leaves a host of nieces, nephews and friends to mourn his passing. His noble life will ever linger in the memories of those left behind. His body was returned to Anderson, Indiana and funeral services were held in Knuckels Funeral Parlor conducted by Elder Bowman of Anderson, of the Church of The Brethren, after which his body was laid beside that of his companion in the cemetery near by.

LANDES—Lucinda Landes, daughter of Elder John and Catherine Smith, was born near Trotwood, Ohio, July 2, 1856. Her early life was spent in vigorous activity and labor in the home and on the farm, and on Feb. 11, 1875, was united in wedlock to Wm. Landes. This union was blessed with ten children—six sons and four daughters. In the autumn time of the same year of their marriage, they together accepted Christ as their Saviour and were baptized into the Old German Baptist Church in which faith she remained true and steadfast. With the exception of a few years immediately after marriage, she resided the rest of her life on or near the home farm which they built on Route 40, near Englewood, Ohio. Her life was one of constant service, labor and loyalty to her husband and family, and in the service of her Master she stood firm to her convictions. On Dec. 21, 1923, her side companion was taken from her by the reaper, Death, and in the early morning of March 15, 1942, after an illness of 12 weeks, her spirit peacefully returned to the One Who gave it, at the advanced age of 85 years, 8 months and 13 days. During a previous illness she was anointed with oil in the name of the Lord. For the past three years she had been serving in the capacity of housekeeper and foster-mother to her nephew, Perry Detrick, who in return so lovingly administered to her every want and comfort.

She was preceded in death by her husband, one daughter, Vinna Edna Deeter, one infant son, one grandchild and three gerat-grandchildren. There remain to follow her footsteps, one brother, Oliver Smith, and the following five sons and three daughters: John Webster, Albert Victor, Wm. Edgar, Samuel Oliver and Daniel Earl Landes, Clara Ellen Buechly, Emma Agnes Hess and Lucinda Alice Aukerman. There survive also thirty grandchildren, sixty-six greatgrandchildren and a host of relatives and friends, who mourn the loss of her exemplary life. "The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness." Funeral services were held at the Lower Stillwater church, by the home brethren and Bro. Arthur R. King to a large crowd of neighbors and friends. Burial was in the church cemetery.

For the dissemination of the Primitive Faith, and practice of the early Christian as taught by Jesus Christ and His apostles and as handed down to the present day by the OLD GERMAN BAPTIST CHURCH.

Price $1.00 per year payable in advance.

It contends for the Ancient Principles of the Old Church, and for the Old Paths. It admonishes to humility, love and peace; a check to the rapid growth of pride and popularity; a renunciation of sin in all of its various forms, and a deeper work of grace in the heart, etc.

"For whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like minded, one toward another, according to Christ Jesus: that ye may with ONE mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God." (Romans 15:4-7).

OBITUARIES

A Hymn of Comfort

It singeth low in every heart,
We hear it each and all,
A song of those who answer not,
However we may call:
They throng the silence of the breast,
We see them as of yore,
The good, the true, the kind, the dear,
Who walk with us no more.

'Tis hard to take the burden up,
When these have laid it down;
They brightened all the joys of life,
They softened every frown:
But O 'tis good to think of them,
When we are troubled sore;
Thanks be to God that such have been,
Though they are here no more.

More homelike seems the vast unknown,
Since they have entered there;
To follow them were not so hard,
However they may fare;
They cannot be where God is not,
On any sea or shore;
Whate'er betides, Thy love abides
Our God, forevermore.

MILLER—Sister Mary Alice Miller, daughter of Elder Levi and Sister Emma Miller, deceased, was born near Cerro Gordo, Ill., July 12, 1898. She passed from this life at the St. Elizabeth Hospital at Lafayette, Indiana on April 29, 1942, at the age of 43 years, 9 months and 17 days. Sister Alice (by which name we all knew her) was of a pious, harmless, loving and quiet disposition, making friends everywhere she went.

She, with her sister Maggie, remained in the parental home caring for the parents with much love and concern till after their deaths, then they purchased for themselves a home in Rossville, Indiana, where they lived happily and comfortably together, till the last few weeks of her life, when her health began to fail. She was taken to the hospital where all was done that medical skill and loving hands could do, till she peacefuly fell asleep, for which she had longed, saying, she wished she could close her eyes and never open them again in this life. While at the hospital she called for the anointing which was administered to her by her elders.

She accepted her Saviour early in life and was an example and inspiration to all who knew her.

She leaves to mourn her departure, three sisters, namely, Maggie Miller, with whom she made her home, Elizabeth Root and Ruth Austin; four brothers, Abe, Russel, Carl and Homer (all members of the church).

She united with the Old German Baptist church about 18 years ago, in which faith she continued steadfastly to the end. She had been an invalid for about four years. She bore her suffering patiently; was afflicted to the extent she could not feed herself for a long time. Having lived in the mountains of West Virginia in this isolated place, she lived an exemplary Christian life and was loved by her neighbors and all who knew her. About seventeen months ago she requested the anointing which seemed to give her much comfort.

Funeral by the brethren of Peters Creek congregation, Roanoke Co., Va., under whose care she had been. We feel our loss is her gain.

As onward through vistas and ages it goes.
This wonderful, beautiful, sanctified day
Continues right onward forever and aye.
Shall we ever enjoy it? I trust we may.

Oh, wonderful, beautiful day so fair!
O, day of eternity so rich and rare!
I long for a breath of thy fragrant air,
And all of thy wonders and pleasures to share;
And when our transgressions are all washed away,
And our spirits freed from this house of clay
Oh, then we shall enter that beautiful day.

Dear Lord, be near us now we pray,
In this, Thy darkening hour;
Oh, help us ne'er from Thee to stray,
Protect us by Thy Power.

If we are worthy of Thy Grace
When crossing Jordan's stream,
We know we'll meet Thee face to face
And join in sweet Refrain.

OBITUARIES

STILL WATERS

What tho' the way be rough and steep,
Thorny and cold as on I press;
High overhead a beam I keep
To hold my soul in cheerfulness.
This talisman so gleaming bright
Illuminates my darkest night—
"Be patient, child, canst thou not see,

'Tis by still waters I'm leading thee?"
And earnestly I strive to make it plain
To my mortal vision that I am blest;
The lives of others hold more of pain—
The world's ways have small place for rest.

So whatever out of my life I miss,
Courage I find when He tells me this:
"Ever press on toward the true and the right;
Thou shalt lie down beside still waters at night."

BRUBAKER,—Lois Elaine, daughter of Emmett and Florence Brubaker, was born May 14, 1940 near Eaton, Ohio, and departed this life July 21, 1942, near Lapel, Indiana; age 2 yrs., 2 months and 7 days.

Elaine, as all her kinfolks knew her, was a very healthy child from babyhood. She was a remarkably good natured little girl and although bashful, to those of her close acquaintance she freely showed her love and was quick to demonstrate her feelings for them.

In the forenoon of July 21st, while her mother was busy with her home duties and had mixed the gasoline and oil solution for her washer she set it on the work table. At about 12 o'clock noon, little Elaine, like children will often do, tried to pick up the cup and spilled it into her face. She swallowed and probably breathed much of it into her lungs, making her deathly sick. She went immediately into convulsions and was rushed to the hospital where she seemed to be responding to treatment when the Master suddenly called her "Home," at about 3:00 o'clock that afternoon. Her suffering was of short duration.

She leaves to mourn her departure Father, Mother, one Brother, Marvin, aged 4, two grandfathers and two grandmothers, with a host of other relatives and friends who feel a flower has been taken from them, but know the heavenly host is rejoicing. Funeral was held in the Beech Grove church by the home Brethren. The body was laid to rest in the Pleasant Valley cemetery near by.

OBITUARIES

IN MEMORY OF LOVED ONES

What they have been to us in life
We only know when they are gone;
How sweet the tie of love has been,
We only know when left alone.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.

All is over, hands are folded
On a calm and peaceful breast;
All is over, suffering ended,
Now dear wife is gone to rest.

Selected by Levi G. Kline.

KELLER—Effie May, daughter of Bro. Henry and Sister Catharine Mohler, was born in Carroll Co., Ind., Oct. 30, 1871 and grew to young womanhood near the scenes of her birthplace. In the autum of 1888 she united with the Old German Baptist Church in which calling she lived most faithful—always.

During her last illness she called for the Elders of the church and was anointed in the name of the Lord. Then on Aug. 30, 1942, the frail thread of her life severed and she went Home.

On May 18, 1889 she was united in marriage with Bro. Albert Keller with whom she happily walked life's pathway, a loving and faithful wife. To this union eight children were born. One son, Bro. Glen Keller, and seven daughters—Sister Mary Keller, Sister Josephine Bortels, Sister Anna Johnson, Sister Ruth Knop, Sister Verna Kessler, Sister Dorothy Cable and Sister Nina James.

Those who mourn her departure deepest are her devoted husband, her children, one sister, Sister Lydia Patrick, one daughter-in-law, Sister Martha Keller, her sons-in-law, Bro. Fay Kessler, Bro. Ralph Cable, and Woodrow James, whose tender hands lifted her so lovingly in her hours of great need, one grand son, Robert, whom she loved and raised as her own, nineteen other grandchildren and one great-grand-son and many other relatives and friends.

To attempt to eulogize a life like hers is only to discover the emptiness of words. Her ready smile, her kind words and loving deeds to all who came under her influence have consecrated her life far above the power of words to describe.

A beautiful funeral service was conducted in the church house on the banks of North Fork of Wild Cat Creek, by Eld. J .W. Skiles, assisted by Eld. Edw. Miller and Bro. Morris Wagoner She was laid in her final resting place in the little cemetery back of the church house, near her Father, Mother and Sister who have gone on before her.

By Glen Keller.

dentally shot by Jack White, 17 year old, son of the Ex-Senator.

She is survived by her parents, 2 half-sisters (namely Flossie and Esther) and 10 brothers, namely: Hurley, Lawrence, George, Donald, Lloyd, Gerald, Norbert, Robert and Walter; also 2 sisters, namely: Dorothea and Hazel. One half-brother, Jesse, and one-half sister, Cassie, preceded her in death, also one brother, Helmuth and one sister, Norma, preceded her in death.

Funeral services were held in the Baptist Church, at Menominie, Wis., Thursday, Aug. 27, 1942 by Pre. Howard Peden, of the Church of the Brethren assisted by Bro. John H. Flora.

On Oct. 26, 1926 she united with the Old German Baptist Church, in which faith she remained faithful until the final summons.

Sister Susie had been in declining health for a number of years. About three weeks ago she became seriously ill and was removed from her home to the Greenville Hospital, where she gradually grew worse and on Saturday evening, Aug. 29, 1942 about eight-thirty the death angel called and she passed to the great beyond at the age of fifty years and twenty-three days. Realizing her end was near, she on Aug. 18, called for the Elders of the Church and was anointed with oil in the name of the Lord. She bore her affliction and intense suffering with Christian fortitude.

For the dissemination of the Primitive Faith, and practice of the early Christian as taught by Jesus Christ and His apostles and as handed down to the present day by the OLD GERMAN BAPTIST CHURCH.

Price $1.00 per year payable in advance.

It contends for the Ancient Principles of the Old Church, and for the Old Paths. It admonishes to humility, love and peace; a check to the rapid growth of pride and popularity; a renunciation of sin in all of its various forms, and a deeper work of grace in the heart, etc.

"For whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like minded, one toward another, according to Christ Jesus: that ye may with ONE mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Committee, has been highly gratifying; and needs to be commended, in light of the Word of God; however, we wish to suggest, that, wherever possible, individual members and friends hand their subscriptions, or payments, to their local church treasurer, to be forwarded with the payment from that district.

We realize there are some individuals, who feel it their duty to assist this very worthy cause; and being in isolation, or for other causes, it is impossible to apply the above suggestions to their cases: therefore such individual contributions will continue to be welcomed as heretofore.

This suggestion is an effort to assist in eliminating some unnecessary expense, labor and time for the Brotherhood C. O. Fund treasurer, as it becomes necessary to acknowledge individual receipts, as well as district receipts.

Lovingly submitted, for the good of the C. O. Boys and Cause.

JESUS WHISPERS

Jesus whispers, I am with you
In the sunshine, in the cloud,
When the spirit is exalted,
When the stricken heart is bowed.

Jesus whispers, I am with you,
In my battle every day;
Standing by you in the conflict,
Going with you all the way.

Jesus whispers, I am with you
In the hour of deepest need,

When the way is dark and dreary,
I am with you, I will lead.

Jesus whispers, I am with you,
With you still whate'er betide;
In the sun light or the shadow,
I am ever at thy side.

EIKENBERRY—Bro. Joel Eikenberry, son of Henry and Polly Eikenberry, was born at Flora, Indiana, Oct. 28, 1872. Died at his home in the bounds of the Middle Fork Church, Rossville, Ind., Sept. 5, 1942, at the age of 69 years, 10 mo., and 8 days.

On Aug. 8, 1900, he was united in marriage to Caperna Plunkett (daughter of Elder Moses Plunkett) of Kans. To this union 5 daughters and 2 sons were born. Besides the widow he is survived by the 5 daughters and one son, as follows: Sister Ella Miller, wife of Brother Homer Miller; Sister Rena Gascho, wife of Brother Andrew Gascho;; Mrs. Sarah Clune, wife of Austin Clune; Sister Frances Metzger, wife of Brother David Metzger; Mrs. Martha Christy, wife of Allen Christy, and Henry M. Eikenberry. Also 10 grandchildren and 2 brothers, Jonas Eikenberry and D. F. Eikenberry. There remain also many other more distant relatives and friends. One son died in infancy.

Two weeks before his death he was stricken with a severe heart attack, later developing into pneumonia, which resulted in his death. During his sickness he remembered the injunction of James and called for the elders and was anointed in the name of the Lord.

Early in life he united with the Old German Baptist Brethren Church, and in 1902 was called to the deacon's office, where he served very faithfully till the day of his death.

Brother Joel was a safe and faithful counselor, always very much concerned for the welfare and peace of the church. He will be greatly missed by the officials of the church, as well as the family.

Funeral was conducted from the Middle Fork church near Rossville, Ind., with interment in the cemetery near by, by the undersigned, assisted by Bro. Morris Wagoner and the home brethren, from 2 Cor. 5:1-2 and 1 Sam. 20:18.

Jacob W. Skiles.

He was married to Vera Satterfield of Forrest City, Ark., on July 4, 1930. He is survived by his loving wife, 2 sons, Charles Edgar, aged 4 years, and John Wayne, aged 7 months; also by his parents and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Albert C. Peterson, Paul H., Mrs. David W. Stitely, Mrs. Glenn B. Springer, William A., J. Marshall and Franklin E.; also 5 half-brothers and 1 half-sister, namely, James A., David A., J. Elmer, Jacob N., George A. and Mrs. D. Saylor Weybright.

Although he had been in declining health for the last year, he still remained at his work, and his death came as a shock to all the family. Having spent his last days with his family in Forrest City, he left them in the morning to return to his work, feeling apparently as well as usual. After eating his lunch he suffered a heart attack and dropped dead in Winona, Miss. His body was taken to his late home in Forrest City, where serv-

For the dissemination of the Primitive Faith, and practice of the early Christian as taught by Jesus Christ and His apostles and as handed down to the present day by the OLD GERMAN BAPTIST CHURCH.

Price $1.00 per year payable in advance.

It contends for the Ancient Principles of the Old Church, and for the Old Paths. It admonishes to humility, love and peace; a check to the rapid growth of pride and popularity; a renunciation of sin in all of its various forms, and a deeper work of grace in the heart, etc.

"For whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like minded, one toward another, according to Christ Jesus: that ye may with ONE mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God." (Romans 15:4-7).

I am getting along all right here, but I hope and pray that it is God's will, I can be placed in a C. O. camp with the rest of the brethren. Time goes very slow, but by the help of God is made easier. To the young brethren and adherents: Let us hold fast to our belief and do as God has taught us and we shall be rewarded in the end if we are soldiers of God's army. May the grace of our Lord be with you all.

Your brother in Christ.

OBITUARIES

OVER THERE

By Anna Howell

There is a land of pure delight
Where hope eternal springs;
Where faith leads on a burning fire,
And joy eternal sings.

O help my mind to be so filled
With thoughts divine and pure,
Let kindness rule within my life
And keep my footsteps sure.

Let every day begin anew
With God, my Father guiding;
Let others hear His voice through me
To tell abroad the tidings.

The story of our Saviour's love—
How dear to us who know it—
Bright mansions He's prepared above
For all who try to show it.

So let us try that home to win,
That lovely home in heaven,
Where God is love and God is light,
And love to all is given.

Love, joy and peace are dwelling there;
The pure in heart shall know them;
And Jesus, blessed Saviour fair,
How wonderful to see Him!

O just to look on His dear face
Eternal joy will be!
Let's try henceforth that joy to win
For all eternity!
